King Will Discuss Integration Future

Negro Leader
To Give Talk
In Cabell Hall
Martin Luther King, social leader of the NAACP, will speak on "The Future of Integration" at a meeting of the Council of Human Relations Tuesday at 8:30 in the Cabell Hall Auditorium.

Tickets for the integration forum where he is to speak will be on the third floor of Newcomb Hall and may be purchased Monday through Friday from 9:30 to 3:30. All tickets are free.

Martin Luther King
preacher to speak Monday
Sabin Drug
Available On Sunday

Permenant immersion
imprinted postage stamp may be gained by all University students in any wide program, "Student Freedom," which is being sponsored by the Alternative College, Medical Society and Student Councils.

This is one of a series of projects featuring new social movement developed by Dr. Robert Allen. The method differs from Said, nontext it is too complicated a broadly and has been after effects.

"Students deserve the opportunity to take this vaccine," said Robert Allen, a member of the publicity committee for the project. "The University is a a part of the community and thus community should share the benefits and responsibilities."

He added that since the Uni-vaccines are available, which of which is portable, three of which are available, which is not important to build the best immune response at a time.

The first day will be given Sunday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Memorial Gymnasium; the second session is scheduled for Tuesday, March 15.

Student Offered Summer Studies
Edward E. Smith, Jr.,
with a four-year residence in France, has been offered the summer studies by the University at the University of France.

The student, a major in the College of Arts and Letters, and Renee Smith, a
major in the College of Arts and Letters, are summer studies.

Professor Roy Whittaker
of Purdue University will speak on "Recent Progress in Analytical Chemistry" at 8 p.m.
Cable Science Laboratory.

Negro Leader
To Give Talk
In Cabell Hall
Martin Luther King, social
leader of the NAACP, will speak
on "The Future of Integration" at a meeting of the Council of Human Relations Tuesday at 8:30 in the Cabell Hall Auditorium.

Tickets for the integration
forum where he is to speak will be
on the third floor of Newcomb
Hall and may be purchased
Monday through Friday from 9:30 to 3:30. All tickets are
free.

Martin Luther King
preacher to speak Monday
Sabin Drug
Available On Sunday

Permenant immersion
imprinted postage stamp may be gained by all University students in any
wide program, "Student Freedom," which is being sponsored by the Alternative College, Medical Society and Student Councils.

This is one of a series of projects featuring new social move-movement developed by Dr. Robert Allen. The method differs from Said, nontext it is too complicated a broadly and has been
after effects.

"Students deserve the
opportunity to take this vaccine," said
Robert Allen, a member of the
publicity committee for the
project. "The University is a
a part of the community and thus
community should share the benefits and responsibilities."

He added that since the Uni-
vaccines are available, which
of which is portable, three
of which are available, which
is not important to
build the best immune
response at a
time.

The first day will be
given Sunday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Memorial Gymnasium; the
second session is scheduled for Tuesday, March 15.

Student Offered Summer Studies
Edward E. Smith, Jr.,
with a four-year residence in France, has been offered the
summer studies by
the University at the University of France.

The student, a
major in the College of Arts and Letters, and Renee Smith, a
major in the College of Arts and Letters, are
summer studies.

Professor Roy Whittaker
of Purdue University will speak
on "Recent Progress in Analytical Chemistry" at 8 p.m.
Cable Science Laboratory.

Title: The Cavalier daily
Call Number: Newspaper Virginia Charlottesville
Location: SC-STS

Under 17 USC, Section 107, this single copy was produced for the purposes of private study, scholarship, or research. No further copies should be made. Copyright and other legal restrictions may apply. Special Collections, University of Virginia Library.